

No.	Date	City, State	School	Life-Saving Events	Summary	Cited Source	Internal/ External
1.	January 30, 2001	Cupertino, CA	De Anza College	An employee at a Longs Drugs store developed pictures of DeGuzman posing with his guns and homemade bombs. She and a coworker called police. DeGuzman was arrested when he returned for his photos.	De Anza College student Al DeGuzman planned a Columbine style school shooting at the school. An employee at a Longs Drugs store developed pictures of DeGuzman posing with his guns and homemade bombs. She and a coworker called police. DeGuzman was arrested when he returned for his photos. Police searched Deguzman's bedroom and found several shotguns and rifles, nearly 1000 rounds of ammunition, homemade bombs and a map of De Anza College, marked with locations where bombs would be placed. In October 2002, DeGuzman was sentenced to seven years in state prison. He later committed suicide by hanging himself in his jail cell.	https://www.sfgate.com/bayarea/article/De-Anza-College-Bloodbath-Foiled-Photo-Clerk-2957361.php	Internal
2.	March 16, 2004	Malcolm, NE	Malcolm High School	In the parking lot of Malcolm High School, a school staff member, who saw the youth drinking liquor and putting on a black overcoat, called the police.	17-year-old Joshua Magee was arrested in the parking lot of Malcolm High School after a school staff member, who saw the youth drinking liquor and putting on a black overcoat, called the police. A search of Magee's car produced a bolt-action rifle, 20 bombs and a note stating that he wanted to injure everyone at the school except for three friends. Magee, to whom the school paid close attention after it was reported to faculty that he was experimenting with explosives at home, was charged with attempted murder.	https://usatoday30.usatoday.com/news/nation/2004-03-18-school-nebraska_x.htm	Internal

3.	September 14, 2006	Green Bay, WI	Green Bay East High School	A student was told about the planned attack the day before at lunch, and the next morning he went to the principal and told him of the plans.	Two 17-year-old boys were arrested the morning of Sept. 14 at Green Bay East High School for allegedly planning an armed attack on their school. Authorities said they found suicide notes at the homes of both Shawn Ryan Sturtz and William Charles Cornell. The following items were also found at Cornell's home: handmade explosives; bbs; gunpowder; toilet paper tubes and firecrackers; six one-quart jars of napalm; nine long guns, including rifles and shotguns; one handgun; walkie-talkies; numerous pellet guns; hundreds of rounds of ammunition; and mannequin heads that may have been used for target practice. In total, 110 items were seized.	https://wtaq.com/news/articles/2016/sep/13/10th-anniversary-of-east-hs-plot-arrests/	Internal
4.	December 4, 2008	Pottstown, PA	Pottstown High School	Yanis's father reported three missing handguns to police. Yanis had stolen the guns from his father and put them into a duffel bag, which he handed to a friend with the words to "hold onto it." After checking the bag Yanis's friend told his mother of the weapons.	15-year-old Richard Yanis was arrested for plotting a school shooting at Pottstown High School after his father reported to police three missing handguns. An investigation revealed that Yanis had stolen the guns from his father and put them into a duffel bag, which he handed to a friend with the words to "hold onto it". After checking the bag Yanis' friend told his mother of the weapons, who then forced him to get rid of them by throwing them into a river. After his arrest Yanis admitted that he had planned to shoot people at his school he didn't like, before committing suicide.	http://www2.readingeagle.com/article.aspx?id=116986	Internal

5.	August 17, 2011	Tampa Bay, FL	Freedom High School	A friend of Jared Cano — whose identity has been kept a secret because he is a confidential informer for Tampa police — said Jared told him he wanted to kill more than 32 people, more than Columbine and more than Virginia Tech. According to court documents, the friend went to Jared's apartment in August 2011, and Jared pulled up a Google map of Freedom High School on the Internet. Jared said he was going to put the bombs in the school cafeteria, an idea he got from Columbine. Jared seemed anxious that day. He watched everything his friend did, questioned him, and wouldn't allow the friend into his bedroom. He seemed different. The friend told police he could "see it in his eyes." "Maybe it was because a girl he liked had brushed him off, the friend guessed. The friend became nervous. He called his mother to pick him up. The next day, he called police.	17-year-old former student of Freedom High School Jared Cano was arrested for a bomb plot and shooting against his school in an attempt to outdo the Columbine massacre. He left behind bomb materials, video, and a manifesto. He had been expelled from the school in March 2010. He was sentenced to 15 years in prison.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/tampa-teen-arrested-in-alleged-school-bomb-plot/	Internal
6.	May 27, 2013	Albany, OR	West Albany High School	According to CBS affiliate KOIN, police were tipped off when a mother questioned her son on his unusual behavior. the unidentified boy told her about Acord's plans and the woman called 911.	Grant Acord, a 17-year-old junior who was attending West Albany High School was found with an arsenal of explosives under the floorboards of his bedrooms. The explosives included a Molotov cocktail , a napalm bomb , and Drano bombs. He supposedly wanted to make a more "successful version" of the Columbine High School massacre. He was charged with attempted aggravated murder and six counts each of unlawful possession and manufacture of a destructive device. He is held on $2 million bail.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/grant-acord-updated-ore-teen-who-allegedly-planned-school-bomb-attack-called-self-russian-grim-reaper-court-docs-say/	Internal
7.	March 4, 2014	Danbury, CT	Danbury High School	Two patients of Hope House in Torrington (where Natalie Carpenter and Thulin were patients) reported Carpenter and Thulin to staff members at the psychiatric facility, court records show.	18-year-old Natalie Carpenter and 19-year-old Peter Thulin were arrested on March 4 and accused of planning a shooting at Danbury High School . Carpenter was reportedly obsessed with	https://www.nhregister.com/connecticut/article/Cops-Natalie-Carpenter-was-obsessed-with-11385501.php	Internal the Columbine High School massacre .

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

8.	May 1, 2014	Waseca, MN	Waseca Junior/Senior High School	A worker at a storage unit saw a young man slip into a storage locker and shut the door behind him. She said it just looked wrong and alerted authorities. Her call thwarted a cunningly planned gun and bomb attack at the boy's school, they say.	17-year-old John David LaDue was charged on May 1 with 10 attempted murder and explosives counts in a plot to shoot his family to death and then kill himself and "as many students as he could" by blowing up Waseca Junior/Senior High School, according to authorities. Explosives and materials used to create explosives were found in his possession. LaDue reportedly idolized the Columbine High School massacre shooters.	https://kdvr.com/2014/05/02/police-minnesota-teen-who-idolized-columbine-massacre-planned-school-attack/	Internal
9.	February 14, 2018	Everett, WA	ACES Alternative High School	An 18-year-old, Joshua O'Connor, was arrested after his grandmother discovered a journal that contained plans to commit a school shooting at ACES Alternative High School and reported the plan to police.	An 18-year-old, Joshua O'Connor, was arrested after his grandmother discovered a journal that contained plans to commit a school shooting at ACES Alternative High School and reported the plan to police. The journal outlined the plans down to the minute. His plan involved planting pressure cooker bombs under the bleachers and using zip-ties on door handles. His grandmother also discovered a Hi-Point carbine rifle hidden in his room. A judge sentenced O'Connor to a minimum 22½ years in prison.	https://www.heraldnet.com/news/everett-teen-sentenced-to-22-years-for-school-shooting-plot/	Internal
10.	January 2018	Uniontown, PA	Uniontown Area Senior High School	Police found multiple guns and machetes in a 14-year-old high school student's bedroom after receiving a tip from one of the suspect's classmates. According to officials, the classmate allegedly overheard the suspect threatening to shoot four students at Uniontown Area Senior High School. The student who overheard the conversation recorded it, said Fayette County District Attorney Richard Bower, according to CBS News. The person then told their parents, who contacted police.	When authorities went to the suspect's home, they found an arsenal of weapons in his bedroom including a semi-automatic rifle, a shotgun, two machetes, throwing knives, two lever-action rifle, a revolver, a crossbow with arrows, and bulk ammunition for all of the weapons.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/pennsylvania-school-shooting-plot-foiled-police-weapons-teenager-fire-arms-house-bedroom-a8181426.html	Internal

11.	October 17, 2018	Lawrenceburg, KY	Anderson County High School	A mom of two from New Jersey is crediting her maternal instinct with thwarting a potential mass school shooting — after she reported the would-be attacker to police for sending her racist messages on Facebook, according to reports. The sickening message prompted her to dig into Jarrell’s whereabouts. She then reported him to Lawrenceburg police, who arrested him the next day as he was pulling out of his driveway — allegedly armed.	The tip from Lumberton’s Koeberle Bull led Kentucky authorities to arrest Dylan Jarrell, who was found last Thursday with a firearm, more than 200 rounds of ammunition, a bulletproof vest, a 100-round high-capacity magazine and a “detailed plan” to attack a school, Kentucky state police said. His phone contained information pertaining to “threats of bodily harm against multiple persons at a school,”	https://nypost.com/2018/10/24/moms-quick-think-ng-foils-alleged-school-shooting-plot/	Internal
12.	December 18, 2018	Middlebury, VT	Middlebury Union Middle School	A middle school student in Vermont helped avert a possible school shooting after overhearing two classmates discussing bringing guns to campus, police say. Investigators said a concerned parent from Middlebury Union Middle School called police on Saturday to inform them their child had expressed concern “over some conversation this student was privy to, where there was talk about using firearms to harm people in school.”	The two 14-year-old students were planning to get guns from a relative and bring them to school on Tuesday. More than 10 weapons were confiscated from the home, largely consisting of hunting rifles and handguns.	https://www.foxnews.com/us/attentive-student-foiled-possible-school-shooting-vermont-police-say	Internal
13.	March 22, 2019	Snow Hill, MD	Snow Hill Middle School	Officials are crediting a group of eighth-grade students for foiling a school shooting plot at a Maryland middle school. Worcester County investigators arrested two minors after the students reported a “credible” threat to staff at Snow Hill Middle School in Snow Hill, Maryland.	The two individuals arrested have been charged with conspiracy to commit first-degree murder and related offenses.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/maryland-8th-grade-students-foil-potential-school-shooting/story?id=62371329	Internal
14.	February 16, 2018	Rutland County, VT	Fair Haven Union High School	Rutland County’s elected head prosecutor praised a family in New York’s Dutchess County, who court paperwork shows reported Facebook messages from Sawyer in which he wrote about “shooting up my old high school.”	Investigators wrote in paperwork filed with the court that Sawyer recently bought a shotgun and ammo and kept a list of current and former Fair Haven students, which he titled “Top of the should have died list.”	https://www.necn.com/news/new-england/Fair-Haven-High-School-Vermont-Mass-Shooting-Threat-Jack-Poultney-474276183.html	Internal

15.	June 9, 2018	Virginia Beach, VA.	Bayside High School	Police were alerted by staff that individual not attending or related to Bayside HS were attempting to buy tickets to the prom. "It was unusual for someone not associated with the high school, or with anyone at the high school, to want to buy a ticket to show up at that particular event,"	Michael Coleman, 18, and an unnamed 17-year-old were arrested and charged with conspiring to commit a terrorist attack at the Bayside High School prom in Virginia Beach, Virginia. Colman attempted to enter the prom and was stopped by police. Colman fled the scene and discarded a handgun. He was subsequently located and arrested. The 17 year old was located and taken into custody after police found a semi-automatic rifle in a room they shared at The Westin Hotel in Town Center, where prom was taking place	ABC News https://abcnews.com/US/teens-arrested-terrorist-plot-targeting-virginia-high-school/story?id=55825097	External
16.	May 13, 1999	Port Huron, MI	Holland Woods Middle School	Foiled when classmates overheard them talking about their plan and reported it to the assistant principal. All four were caught within a day of the report to the assistant principal.	Four teens ages 14 and 13 planned to hold up a gun store and then attack the school. Once there, they planned to rape some of the girls and shoot as many as 154 targets which they had drawn up on a list. They had stolen a building plan from the custodian's office.	Wikipedia/CNN.com http://www.cnn.com/US/9905/18/school.threat/index.html	Internal
17.	February 14, 2001	Elmira, NY.	Southside High School	The attack was foiled after students told a teacher that he was carrying weapons.	Jeremy Getman, 18, planned a school attack at Southside High School but it was foiled after students told a teacher that he was carrying weapons. He carried 14 pipe bombs, three smaller bombs, a propane tank, a sawed-off shotgun, and a .22 caliber pistol into the school by a duffel bag and also a book bag full of ammunition		Internal
18.	October 11, 2007	Plymouth Meeting, PA.	Plymouth Whitemarsh High School	A 14-year-old was arrested at his home in Plymouth Meeting, PA. after a friend told police about his plan to carry out a Columbine-style attack on Plymouth Whitemarsh High School.	The juvenile admitted that he felt bullied and tried to recruit another boy for a possible attack at Plymouth Whitemarsh High School. Authorities searched the 14 year old's home and found a 9 mm rifle,	CBS News.com https://www.cbsnews.com/news/boy-behind-colum	Internal

					about 30 air-powered guns modeled to look like higher-powered weapons, swords, knives, a bomb-making book, videos of the 1999 attack on Columbine High School in Colorado and violence-filled notebooks.	bine-style-plot-sentenced/
19.	March 11, 2009	Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania	St. Andrew Elementary School	An eighth grade student was arrested after a fellow pupil he attempted to recruit for an attack tipped off authorities.	The plan of the 13-year-old student was to force the school in lock down and shoot anybody who tried to escape. He is charged with terroristic threats and reckless endangerment	6ABC.com https://6abc.com/archive/6703373/	Internal
20.	October 21, 2009	Monroe, New York	Monroe-Woodbury High School	Superintendent Joseph DiLorenzo indicated that students had come forward with information that may have averted the alleged plot. According to police, the plot was to conduct an attack on former classmates on the anniversary of the Columbine High School Shooting.	A 15-year-old boy who was already on juvenile probation, admitted he stockpiled bottles of gasoline, makeshift fuses, a torch, a 2-foot machete and three tanks of propane in a plot to attack former fellow students at Monroe-Woodbury High School.	CNN.com http://www.cnn.com/2009/CRIME/10/20/new.york.school.plot/index.html	External
21.	July 3, 2013	Seattle, WA.	University of Washington	University of Washington Police on routine patrol, located Justin M. Jasper in a stolen truck on campus. Subsequent investigation lead to the confiscation of weapons, body armor, incendiary devices and maps of several schools from within the vehicle. Jasper was from Nevada and had no connection to the University of Washington.	Justin M. Jasper was arrested by University of Washington police after being found in a stolen truck on campus. Inside the truck police found a stolen rifle fitted with a scope, a stolen shotgun, body armor, knives, a machete, and six incendiary devices. Jasper also had maps to three local campuses, the University of Washington, South Seattle Community College and Seattle University, in addition to anti-government literature and documents about the Syrian and Brazilian revolutions. Jasper had posted a podcast a few days prior to his arrest that indicated Jasper had anti-government views and was planning something in the western United States	KOMONews.com https://komonews.com/archive/2-million-bail-for-man-found-near-uw-with-molotov-cocktails	External
22.	January 25th, 2005	Grand Marais, MN.	Cook County High School	Foiled after authorities at Cook County High School turned over a collection of writings and essays to police. which described shooting and killing his English teacher.	17-year-old David Riehm was arrested at his home on January 25, 2005 after authorities at Cook County High School turned over a collection of writings and essays to police in which Riehm described in	Deluth News Tribune.com	Internal

					great detail shooting and killing his English teacher. All charges were later dropped. Reihm and his mother subsequently filed a civil suit against the school. The suit was dismissed by a US District Judge.	https://www.duluthnewtribune.com/news/2244824-judge-dismisses-suit-student-suspected-threatening-essays
23.	November 28, 2007	LaGrange, NY.	Arlington High School	New York State Police arrested 3 teens, for planning a "Columbine-style" attack on the high school set for the date of April 20, 2010. School officials were alerted to the plan after a student saw the Internet message on MySpace then reported it to one of the high school principals, said Barbara Donegan, assistant superintendent for pupil personnel services. The current charge against Quigley and Saia is fourth-degree conspirac	State police arrested two 16-year-old Poughquag students - Patrick Quigley and Joseph Saia - and a 15-year-old student after investigating a threat posted on a MySpace page. The three teens were charged with fourth-degree conspiracy, a felony. The Web page described events to take place at Arlington High School on April 20, 2010, the 11th anniversary of the attack on Columbine High School	NY Daily News.com https://www.nydailynews.com/news/crime/hudson-valley-high-students-arrested-charged-plotting-school-attack-article-1.260715	Internal
24.	June 4, 2008	Mishawaka, IN.	Penn High School	The plot was foiled when a school officer investigating an unrelated threat at the teen's school discovered My Space Internet postings in which the teen discussed his support for the Columbine shooters. School officials subsequently searched his locker and retrieved a notebook containing written threats.	A 16 year old, Russell James Frantom arrested for plotting with an Ohio man, Lee Billi, to carry out a Columbine-style attack. A black spiral notebook authorities obtained from the 16-year-old's locker at Penn High School in Mishawaka, Ind., contained handwritten entries in which the teen expressed his hatred for most of the people at the school. "I wanna break the current shooting record. I wanna get instant recognition. The only thing that stops me is the fact of being put in jail forever, or having to kill myself, or getting killed by an officer. I could kill anyone without feeling sorry because society sucks!!!"	CBS News.com https://www.cbsnews.com/news/cops-indiana-teen-plotted-school-massacre/	Internal

25.	December 20, 2013	Trinidad, CO.	Trinidad High School	The school resource officer received a tip that two boys, ages 15 and 16, planned to carry out the attack at Trinidad High School after winter break. The teens were arrested on suspicion of making a credible threat against a school and inciting destruction of life or property. Police Chief Glorioso commended the resource officer for acting quickly on the tip.	Two boys, 15 and 16, were arrested for planning an attack on Trinidad High School at the start of the new year. They had been planning the attack for up to six weeks. Investigators learned the 15-year-old had been bullied and had said he idolized the Columbine High School and Colorado theater shooters.	Fox News.com https://www.foxnews.com/us/police-say-they-thwarted-shooting-plot-at-colorado-school	Internal
26.	April 26, 2019	Crossville, TN.	South Cumberland Elementary School	The school resource officer received information about the existence of a "hit list" that contained the names of students to be shot. The SRO advised the school administration who subsequently requested a special threat assessment task force to investigate. While investigators did not find a list, they did uncover a hand-drawn map as well as a plot to bring weapons to the school.	Two 6th grade students plotted to bring weapons to the South Cumberland Elementary School in Crossville, Tennessee, to shoot their classmates and faculty on the last day of school. The students planned to hide the weapons in the locker room, to be used on the last day of school. They intended to enter the building through the back door before shooting faculty and students and dying by suicide before law enforcement intervened	The Chatanooga.com https://www.chatanooga.com/2019/4/29/389270/2-6th-Grade-Students-Charged-In-South.aspx USA Today.com https://amp.usatoday.com/story/news/nation/2019/04/29/two-6th-graders-charged-connection-school-shooting-plot/3623155002/	Internal
27.	August 18, 2018	Taylor, TX.	Taylor High School	After overhearing the boys' plan to carry out a shooting and bomb the school, students told their teacher who immediately went to the principal. The school resource officer was then alerted and the boys were arrested	Three Taylor High School seniors were arrested Wednesday after officials said they made comments about committing a school shooting. The students, all 17 years old, identified as Devant Davis-Brooks, Kadin Watson and Emmanuel Tejas Pina. All three were charged with making a terroristic threat.	KXAN.com https://www.kxan.com/news/local/williamson-county/3-taylor-high-students-arrested-for-allegedly-plottng-school-shooting/	Internal

					Several students overheard the three suspects talking about “detailed plans” to coordinate a shooting at the school that involved explosives and firearms.
28.	February 16, 2018	Whittier, CA.	El Camino High School	School district security officer Marino Chavez overheard the teen say, that he was going to shoot up the school sometime in the next three weeks Chavez asked the student about it, and the teen confirmed that he made the statement but was just kidding and didn’t mean it. Chavez told the student he could not say such things at school. Chavez subsequently reported the incident to the school administration who reported the teen to the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department.	The 17-year-old student at El Camino High School near the city of Whittier was arrested on suspicion of making criminal threats, and his adult brother was arrested on five weapons charges after two assault rifles, 90 high-capacity magazines and other handguns were found in their home. Robert Jacobsen, general counsel for the Norwalk-La Mirada Unified School District, said, “They felt there was enough there that they should call law enforcement so they can investigate further.” “In this day and age, we have to be proactive and make that report and go from there.”	whittierdailynews.com https://www.whittierdailynews.com/2018/02/22/suspect-in-el-camino-high-school-threat-near-whittier-not-charged-brother-accused-of-gun-violation/ ABC7news.com https://abc7news.com/shooting-plot-at-high-school-in-social-thwarted-police-say/3119422/	Internal and External
29.	September 30, 2015	Tuolumne, CA.	Summerville High School	The plan was uncovered when students overheard the suspects talking about it at school and alerted school staff. School staff on the Tuolumne campus immediately called the sheriff’s department.	Four male students were arrested after uncovering a shooting plot targeting Summerville High School. Tuolumne County Sheriff Jim Mele said the case came to him when students noticed three suspects acting suspiciously and notified administrators. School staff on the Tuolumne campus immediately called the sheriff’s department. During the investigation, detectives identified a fourth suspect. While serving two search warrants in the case, authorities found “evidence	NBC News.com https://www.nbcnews.com/news/us-news/four-california-students-arrested-high-school-shooting-plot-n438316 www.modbee.com	Internal verifying a plot to shoot staff and students at Summerville High School,” which the suspects later confessed to in statements to investigators. He said the plot was detailed, and included a list of victims, locations and methods for the attack.	https://www.modbee.com/news/local/crime/article37515759.html

30.	Jan 18, 2019	Lyndon Institute	Lyndon, VT.	The concern started when the student wore an alarming Halloween costume to a school event. "It was a large, like, desktop calendar, and it had a big red arrow on paper pointing to January 31st," said Lyndonville Police Chief Jack Harris. "He made the comment afterward that it's a date that Lyndon Institute will never forget." Harris says the student was involved in a number of incidents indicating he was having these disturbing thoughts. The school treated each incident separately, not putting the pieces together until suspicions arose earlier this month. "Somewhere around January 18th, a student actually pointed out that it appeared to them that he was planning some type of shooting incident," Harris said.	Police in Vermont detained a student accused of making comments about a planned shooting at his school. Lyndonville police detained the student as he got off the bus at school. Police Chief Jack Harris said it started when the student wore a Halloween costume to a school event featuring “a large, like, desktop calendar and it had a big red arrow on paper pointing to January 31st.” Harris said the student later said, “it’s a date that Lyndon Institute will never forget.” Police got a search warrant for the student’s home, but found no guns, but that’s because the boy’s father had removed the weapons from the home the day before, when he became worried about his son’s state of mind.	burlingtonfreepress.com https://www.burlingtonfreepress.com/story/news/local/vermont/2019/01/29/vermont-police-detain-student-accused-school-shooting-comments/2708294002/ WSFA.com https://www.wsfw.com/2019/01/29/student-helps-police-foil-school-shooting-plot-vt/	Internal
31.	Feb 21, 2019	Andrew Jackson Middle School	Titusville, FL.	A student handed an administrator a note found in the bathroom, which prompted a lockdown at the school. The 13-year-old and 14-year-old boys who were named in the notes were not on campus when the lockdown was put in place, but they were found at a home less than a mile away.	Two teenage boys are accused of left notes in a boys bathroom threatening a mass shooting at Andrew Jackson Middle School There was also a map of the school with each wing labeled a number one through six, in addition to a drawing on the mirror of a rectangle with "AJMS" written inside and the word "kaboom" written over it	FloridaToday.com https://www.floridatoday.com/story/news/local/2019/03/13/titusville-middle-school-students-made-plans-shooting-police-say/3156506002/	Internal

					The 13-year-old boy told police that he and his friend left the notes in the bathroom. He said the numbers of the wings of the school corresponded with the order in which they planned to shoot the people inside. The 13-year-old said he intended to make people who had bullied or mistreated him afraid and said there was a teacher who had upset him in the building he wanted to shoot first. He said he didn't have a gun but knew where to get one. The 14-year-old student said the plan was the other boy's doing, although he did admit to writing the note and leaving the school with the other boy once the lockdown was put in place. That boy said he didn't have a gun and would not know where to get one.	ClickOrlando.com https://www.clickorlando.com/news/teens-accused-of-threatening-to-shoot-up-titusville-middle-school
32.	August 8, 2011	Lakeshore High School	Mandeville, LA.	Students notified a school administrator about the plan. The administrator then notified the St. Tammany Parish School System as well as the Sheriff's Office. "We had students step up, do the right thing, gave us the information and helped us possibly avert something," said St. Tammany School Superintendent Trey Folse. The discovery of the alleged plot comes after the school system mounted a public service campaign, aimed at discouraging students from even joking about a violent plot at school	Three teenage boys, all 15 years old, were planing a shooting on the first day of school at Lakeshore High in Mandeville, La. They dubbed their group "Day Zero" and planned to acquire a number of guns and bring them to the school. Investigators collected information off computers at the student's homes. They said the plans included targeting at least one student at the school and killing any law enforcement officer who would have responded to the scene.	CBS.com https://www.cbsnews.com/news/monday-school-shooting-plot-broken-up-say-la-cops-three-teens-arrested/ JamestownSun.com https://www.jamestownsun.com/news/nation/1847813-sheriff-school-shooting-plot-louisiana-foiled	Internal

33.	August 7, 2018	Broadview Entertainment Arts University	Salt Lake City, UT.	Austin James David West, a 23 year old college student sent a text to a fellow student threatening to shoot students at their university using a 3d printed gun. In a text to a second student, the subject said he was going to “commit a shooting that people would be talking about.” The second student forwarded the text to a university professor who notified law enforcement.	On Aug. 7 between 7 p.m. and 11 p.m. Austin James David West, 23 sent several texts to another student he has known for several years, stating that he would commit a shooting that “people would be talking about”. The text messages sent by the suspect reference killing people with a 3D printed gun so the gun could not be traced back to West. The message also contained images of a male in a video holding a rifle while standing over another male that is lying on the ground. The other student forwarded the messages to a school professor at 11:20 p.m. which caused the university dean to be fearful that a school shooting was actually going to take place.	DesertNews.com https://www.deseret.com/2018/8/28/20652138/utah-threatened-mass-school-shooting-using-3d-printed-gun-police-say KUTV.com https://kutv.com/news/local/police-south-jordan-student-threatened-school-shooting-with-3d-printed-gun	Internal
34.	November 1, 2017	Soka University of America	Aliso Viejo, CA	On November 1, 2017 David Kenneth Smith began sending a series of threatening emails to a staff member at Soka University of America. When the series of threatening email escalated the staff member reported the incident to the school administration. School administration subsequently reported the threatening emails to law enforcement. Investigators believed that Smith’s threats were credible and that an attack was possible. Smith was arrested Nov. 2 after an investigation involving the joint terrorism task force, officials said. Nine loaded firearms registered to Smith were recovered after his arrest, officials said.	Nine years after graduating, David Kenneth Smith, a former student of Soka University began sending a series of threatening emails to a staff member at Soka University of America. The emails escalated in intensity and were accompanied by YouTube videos showing the Smith with weapons. In the emails, Smith complains about a disciplinary action taken against him by the college for marijuana possession. Smith states his belief that college employees “never liked me,” and describes being repeatedly fined for residence hall violations and accused of stealing another student’s belongings. In another email Smith says that he “may be coming for a campus visit very soon” and warns that he has “nothing to lose.” Smith threatens	KTLA.com https://ktla.com/2017/11/06/former-student-at-o-c-university-arrested-after-threatening-killing-spree-in-youtube-videos/ LATimes.com https://www.latimes.com/local/lanow/la-me-ln-soka-university-threats-20180601-story.html	External

					that, "Perhaps I will come back and put your little campus on the map." Smith talked about how a killing spree would be better than taking his own life and praises gunmen from previous mass shootings. In a particularly alarming message, Smith sends a video of himself with a shotgun slung over his shoulder. During the video Smith states, "If you're going to go on a killing spree, you might as well do it equally. I've given a lot of thought about this. Who do you kill? I've come to the conclusion you just shoot everyone." When police took Smith into custody, he was unemployed and living in his mother's home. They found several loaded rifles and shotguns in the home.
35.	February 19, 2018	Riverside Community College	Norco, CA.	The Riverside County Sheriff's Department's office in Norco received information about a series of threats made on social media. The Sheriff's office immediately launched an investigation and found that Jacob Ryan McBain was posting to Facebook, saying he intended to shoot people at a Riverside Community college. The threats were deemed credible by sheriff's investigators. A search warrant was served at a residence located in the 5000 block of Trail Street. During the service of the warrant, Jacob Ryan McBain was taken into custody without incident. Deputies recovered a loaded AR-15, two loaded handguns and a large amount of ammunition from McBain's bedroom.	Jacob Ryan McBain, 27, of Norco, CA. was arrested after the Riverside County Sheriff's Department was notified about a series of social media posts where McBain stated that he intended to shoot people at the Riverside Community College. Authorities deemed the online threats credible, so the sheriff's department got a search warrant for his home. While serving the warrant, deputies found a loaded AR-15, two loaded handguns and a "large amount of ammunition" in McBain's bedroom. McBain was charged with criminal threats, felony gun crimes and conspiracy to commit murder.	ABC7.com https://abc7.com/ie-man-accused-of-posting-school-shooting-threats-on-facebook/3119898/	External

36.	2016	Marion High School	Marion, AR.	A teacher clicked the active shooter function on the RAVE app after hearing reports from students that one of the children was bragging about having a gun at school. A lockdown was immediately initiated, and law enforcement apprehended the armed student and recovered the weapon without any injuries.	A student at Marion High School reported overhearing another student bragging about bringing a gun to school. The teacher immediately clicked the “Active Shooter” button in the app, instantly alerting all faculty and staff while simultaneously dialing 9-1-1. The school’s resource officer was able to respond quickly with a second officer arriving within two minutes. Within 8 minutes, the student and gun were secured and no one was hurt. The school was able to evacuate quickly and everyone on campus remained safe.	RaveMobileSafety.com https://www.ravemobilesafety.com/rave-story/school-shooting-wasnt/	Internal
37.	August 15 2019	Not Specified	Tempe, AZ.	Police notified of online threats posted on social media. The police notified the Tempe Union High School District. Subsequent investigation identified and arrested a 14-year-old student who posted the online threat.	An investigation was launched after police and the Tempe Union High School District were made aware of the threats posted online. Mountain Pointe High School told parents that some of their students were sharing the threat, but they did not find any evidence of a direct threat toward their school. "There is no reference to Mountain Pointe in the original threat and we understand several other Valley schools have students who are reporting and reposting the post," the school said. They asked for parents to not share the post and to ask their children to not share it, as well. Tempe police say during the investigation, detectives identified and arrested a 14-year-old who posted the threat.	AZFamily.com https://www.azfamily.com/news/tempe-pd-teen-arrested-after-posting-school-threat-on-social/article_c1ee47d0-c027-11e9-b597-c7d4002c1a86.html	Not Specified
38.	March 6, 2018	Liberty Middle School	Newark, OH.	Students reported the threats to school staff, who notified the Newark Police Department	An 8th grade student at Liberty Middle School told multiple classmates he wanted to shoot other students.	ABC6onyourside.com https://abc6onyourside.com/news/	Internal

				The 8th grader admitted to making the statements when questioned by school officials. The student was subsequently arrested for making terrorist threats.	Students reported the threats to school staff. The 8th grader admitted to making the statements when questioned by school officials. School staff notified the Newark Police Department. The student was subsequently arrested for making terrorist threats.	local/newark-police-arrest-and-charge-8th-student-for-making-threats-at-school
39.	February 18, 2018	Unspecified	Ontario, CA.	An Ontario, CA. resident saw the social media posting and reported it to police.	14-year-old male student was arrested and cited on suspicion of making an online threat that he would shoot “up a school worse than Florida”. An Ontario resident saw the social media posting and reported it. police said. The threat was made via a group chat on Instagram Live. The student attends school in Los Angeles and the only connection to Ontario was the reporting party, who was involved in the chat before alerting police.	DailyNews.com https://www.dailynews.com/2018/02/21/ontario-police-arrest-los-angeles-boy-who-threatened-to-shoot-up-school-worse-than-florida/	External
40.	February 20, 2018	Vineyard Junior High School	Rancho Cucamonga, CA.	School staff learned of threats made on social media and contacted the San Bernardino County Sheriff’s	A 13-year-old male student at Vineyard Junior High was arrested on suspicion of making criminal threats. School staff learned of threats made on social media and contacted the San Bernardino County Sheriff’s . Sheriff’s investigators subsequently determined “There is no current threat to the students or the school staff,” .	DailyBulletin.com https://www.dailybulletin.com/2018/02/20/junior-high-student-arrested-on-suspicion-of-making-criminal-threats-in-rancho-cucamonga/	Internal
41.	February 21, 2018	Millikan High School	Long Beach, CA.	Classmates overheard the student making a threat to hurt people at the campus,	Classmates at Millikan High School overheard a fellow student making a threat to hurt people on the campus. The classmates told school staff who called police around 11:15 a.m.	PressTelegram.com https://www.presstelegram.com/2	Internal

					Long Beach police arrested the student at Millikan High School. School officials did not provide details about what exactly the Millikan student said to catch classmates’ attention, saying only that the student, “made a threat to harm others at the school.” The Long Beach Police Department said he could not release any more details about the alleged threat because the case is still under investigation. Police are also attempted to determine if the student had the capability to carry out the threat he made. Officials said Millikan students were not in danger at any point during the day.	018/02/21/long-beach-police-arrest-millikan-high-student-after-classmates-overhear-threat-authorities-say/
42.	February 22, 2018	Tincher Preparatory School	Long Beach, CA.	A staff member overheard a student talking about the threat, and that individual reported the information to a school public safety officer who subsequently had detained a 14-year-old student.	A staff member overheard a student talking about the threat, and that individual reported the information to a school public safety officer. The student, who is in the eighth grade, was arrested on suspicion of threatening school officials. Police did not identify the student. Further details of the threat were not disclosed.	Press Telegram.com https://www.presstelegram.com/2018/02/22/long-beach-police-3rd-student-this-week-f-or-making-threats-this-one-at-tincher-academy/	Internal
43.	February 22, 2018	Yucca Valley High School	Yucca Valley, CA.	Upon learning of a threats against the school Deputy Armando Cantu, assigned as a juvenile deputy for Yucca Valley, spoke to multiple students and teens, who confirmed the threats. Through an investigation, Cantu identified the student and went to the teen’s home, where the firearms were found.	The San Bernardino County Sheriff’s Department arrested a Yucca Valley teen and seized two firearms after the teen threatened to carry out a shooting at the Yucca Valley High School. The student was booked into Central Juvenile Hall in San	The Press Enterprise PE.com https://www.pe.com/2018/02/23/firearms-seized-after-threats-made-	Internal

					Bernardino on suspicion of making criminal threats.	against-yucca-valley-high-school/
44.	February 22, 2018	Whittier High School	Whittier, CA.	Several students told a school staff member that they had heard a fellow student make statements about “shooting up the school” at the conclusion of third period The staff member immediately notified the school’s administration, who gave the information to the onsite Whittier Police school resource officer. The school resource officer located and detained the unarmed, 17-year-old senior on campus.	Police arrested a Whittier High School arrested on suspicion of making threats to carry out a shooting at the campus of Whittier High School Several students advised school staff that they had heard a fellow student make statements about “shooting up the school”. The staff member notified the school’s administration, who subsequently gave the information to the school’s resource officer. The school resource officer located and detained the unarmed, 17-year-old senior on campus. Investigators searched the suspect’s home but found no weapons. After interviewing the teen, detectives arrested him on suspicion of making criminal threats, which is a felony. The young suspect was taken to Los Padrios Juvenile Hall in Downey, CA.	WhittierDailyNews.com https://www.whittierdailynews.com/2018/02/22/whittier-high-school-student-arrested-following-campus-shooting-threat/	Internal
45.	February 22, 2018	Oak Ridge Elementary School	Chino Hills, CA.	An anonymous citizen showed deputies at the Chino Hills sheriff’s station a video that showed an Oak Ridge Elementary School student rapping. Lyrics depicted fighting with other students and shooting a specific staff member. Deputies immediately contacted school officials and contacted the student at his home	A 12-year-old boy was arrested after creating a rap video that described shooting a specific employee of the Chino Valley Unified School District. An anonymous citizen showed deputies at the Chino Hills sheriff’s station a video that showed an Oak Ridge Elementary School student rapping.	DailyBulletin.com https://www.dailybulletin.com/2018/02/23/chino-hills-12-year-old-arrested-after-threatening-video-reported-to-police/	Internal

					Lyrics depicted fighting with other students and shooting a specific staff member. Deputies immediately contacted school officials and contacted the student at his home, which had a locked safe with guns, deputies said. The boy, whose name is not being released because he is a juvenile, is suspected of criminal threats and was booked into Juvenile Hall. Sheriff's deputies found no other threats
46.	February 23, 2018	Gahr High School	Cherritos, CA.	Students alerted school officials of a social media post which contained a text threatening violence at the school.	A 15-year-old girl was arrested on allegations of posting to social media violent threats against Gahr High School in Cerritos. Deputies arrested the girl at the school. Her name was withheld because of her age. The arrest was made following an investigation that began after students alerted school officials of the social media posts. “The post contained a text threatening violence at the school.” It was unclear if the youth remained in custody. She was booked at the Cerritos Station. A rash of school threats have emerged in Southern California since Feb. 14, when a 19-year-old gunman killed 17 people at a high school in Parkland, Fla.	PressTelegram.com https://www.presstelegram.com/2018/02/23/alleged-threats-on-social-media-against-gahr-high-school-in-cerritos-lead-to-15-year-old-girls-arrest/	Internal
47.	October 26, 2017	Etowah High School	Woodstock, GA.	Police were alerted to the plot by a tip from the community. The tip lead police to meet with Dupree at his home.	Two students, Alfred Dupree and Victoria McCurley both 17 years old, plotted to attack students and staff at Etowah High School	NYPPost.com https://nypost.com/2017/10/26/teachers-accused-of-planning-attack-at-etowah-high-school/	Internal

				Once in the home, police discovered Dupree’s journal which detailed an elaborate plot to attack the school. Authorities were then led to McCurley after reading the journal entries. Police found firearms, a homemade incendiary device and an undetermined powder substance at McCurley’s house.	Both teens were arrested, accused of plotting attacks against students and staff at their high school in Georgia. Both students were charged as adults. The charges are based in part on writings in Dupree’s journal After the trial Prosecutors said the pair planned to use smoke bombs to “corral” students and teachers into a confined area where they would use “napalm and firearms” to “kill as many people as they could,” “We’d like to get our numbers up higher than Las Vegas,” McCurley admitted telling investigators, referring to the Oct. 1, 2017, concert shooting where Stephen Paddock killed 58 people	otting-columbine-style-attack-arrested/ NYPPost.com https://nypost.com/2019/05/12/georgia-teens-made-kill-list-for-school-shooting-plot-authorities/
48.	February 11, 2019	Gulf Middle School	Cape Corral, FL.	Another student at Gulf Middle School had given a teacher a handwritten note Monday that read: “The school gonna get shot see you soon 2/11/19”. The Gulf Middle school administration and police immediately launched an investigation and arrested the student.	A 12 year old student left a threatening note, which was delivered to a teacher by another student. The Gulf Middle school administration and police immediately launched an investigation and arrested the student. Authorities will not release the student's name because of his age. He was arrested on a charge of written threat to conduct a mass shooting.	NewsPress.com https://www.news-press.com/story/news/crime/2019/02/11/gulf-middle-school-student-arrested-over-shooting-threat-cape-police-say/2842929002/	Internal
49.	February 26, 2018	Venture Academy	Stockton, CA.	Students reported threatening statements to school staff. Staff reported to the Stockton Police Department that the student was planning to commit a shooting at the school.	14 year old student at Venture Academy arrested for making threatening statements to other students. School administration learned that a student had made disturbing	RecordNet.com https://www.recordnet.com/news/20180226/police-student-arrested-	Internal

				School staff detained the student until officers arrived.	comments of a threatening nature about the school to other students A subsequent investigation indicated the student had written out plans on how he was going to commit the shooting. A search of the student’s home was conducted and nothing illegal was located. The student, his name withheld because he is a juvenile, was booked into San Joaquin County Juvenile Hall for making terrorist threats.	was-planning-school-shooting
50.	March 8, 2018	Venture Academy	Stockton, CA.	Staff reported they received an anonymous email about a 16-year-old male student who wanted to shoot up the school. The information about the threat came through social media. Officers contacted the teen and his parent at their residence and the juvenile was taken into custody without incident. A search of the residence did not turn up any firearms.	In the span of 11 days, two Venture Academy students have been arrested on suspicion of making threats to commit a shooting at the charter school. The latest arrest came Thursday, 8 March 2018 when staff reported they received an anonymous email about a 16-year-old male student who wanted to shoot up the school. The information about the threat came through social media. Officers contacted the teen and his parent at their residence and the juvenile was taken into custody without incident. A search of the residence did not turn up any firearms. SJCOE officials commended school staff and Stockton police for the quick response. “We are also thankful to the members of our Venture community who are willing to come forward when they see suspicious activity,” the statement	RecordNet.com https://www.recordnet.com/news/20180309/16-year-old-venture-academy-student-arrested-after-alleged-school-shooting-threats	Internal continued. "It underscores the importance of parents talking to students about the seriousness of threats and the need to report suspicious activities, threats, or disturbing information to a trusted adult. The safety of our students and our staff is our first priority, and students, parents, and staff can help us continue to be vigilant."

51.	October 17, 2001	New Bedford High School	New Bedford, MA.	The investigation began when a student told the SRO about overhearing a threat to the school. A second student and coconspirator subsequently warned a teacher about the plot and a janitor found a threatening note on campus. School administration and police followed guidelines and procedures previously put in place to avert the attack.	Three incidents led to 5 Students being arrested on conspiracy to commit murder. The first rumor of a massacre at New Bedford High School surfaced in mid-October when a student told one of the school resource officers that he had overheard a 16-year-old classmate talking about shooting students and teachers because he was "sick of all the jocks and preppies making fun of the way he dressed." Then a co-conspirator, Amy Lee Bowman, 17, confessed the plot to her English teacher. Bowman had come to regard the teacher as a mother figure and was concerned for her safety. Bowman identified Eric McKeehan, 17, and his 15 year old younger brother as the primary plotters to kill as many people as possible at the high school. Third, a janitor found a threatening note that mentioned weapons being loaded in L.L. Bean backpacks. Eric McKeehan his 15-year-old brother and another 15-year-old boy were arrested and held without bail. Police searched several students' homes and seized ammunition, knives, Nazi photographs,	WashingtonPost.com https://www.washingtonpost.com/archive/politics/2001/12/27/shake-n-but-unharmd-mass-school-says-the-system-worked/ecaa347-c697-4994-8252-2154d1fd7c47/	Internal

					bombmaking recipes and drug paraphernalia. McKeehan and the two 15 year olds were charged with conspiracy to commit murder, conspiracy to commit assault and battery with a dangerous weapon, and possession of ammunition. Police were able to link a fifth teen-ager to the massacre plot. The 16-year-old cooperated with the investigation.
52.	August 16, 2019	Edison High School and the Center for Advanced Research and Technology	Fresno, CA. and Clovis, CA.	Snap Chat advised the FBI of the post. The FBI notified the Fresno Police Department. Fresno PD advised the schools During the course of the investigation police were able to determine that the actual location that the shooting was going to occur was at Edison High School. Using GPS, police were able to determine that previous posts to that Snapchat account were made from a home in Fresno, CA.	15-year-old girl arrested after she allegedly posted a threat on Snapchat saying she was going to commit a shooting at her high school The girl, who attends both Edison High School and the Center for Advanced Research and Technology, a high-tech high school in Clovis, was pulled out of class by a guidance counselor and met by police. When confronted about the post, she admitted to the officers that she did in fact make this threatening post.	Yahoo.com https://www.yahoo.com/gma/girl-15-arrested-threatening-california-school-shooting-snapchat-073528457--abc-news-topstories.html	Internal
53.	October 23, 2017	Kaufman High School	Kaufman, TX.	Kaufman Independent School District officials were notified about Snapchat posts referencing a shooting at the school. School officials and police immediately began an investigation into the incident.	Two Kaufman High School students were arrested and accused of threatening to shoot up the campus. The school district said several Snapchat images were sent implying a shooting would happen. One juvenile student was taken into custody for making a false alarm or report involving a public school. Investigators identified a second male student, 18-year-old Garrett	Fox4News.com http://www.fox4news.com/news/juvenile-arrested-for-threat-at-kaufman-high-school Inforney.com https://www.infoorney.com/crime/kaufman-isd-student-arrested-on-ch	Internal

					Dean Martin and charged him with making a terroristic threat.	arge-for-terroristic-threat/article_038a3394-435a-11e8-8d56-8b4fd0ae3589.html
54.	March 26, 2019	North Garland High School and Naaman Forest High School	Garland, TX.	Police investigating a reported threat on social media become aware of a series of unrelated social media posts.	Three Garland ISD high school students are facing felony charges for allegedly making school threats. The students were reportedly making threats, all unrelated, on Snapchat and Instagram. Police say it's highly unusual three students made three separate threats to school on the same day. Police said the situation started when a picture of an old text message was going around that made a vague threat referencing a shooting in the Garland/Sachse area. Police investigated, found that threat to be unsubstantiated and were not able to trace the threat to a specific person or source. Then a student made a threat against other students on Instagram about a shooting at school. Police found and identified the source of that threat as a 15-year-old juvenile North Garland High School student. As police were investigating that threat, another threat referencing a school shooting was made on Snapchat. That threat was found to be from a 15-year-old juvenile at Naaman Forest High School. Police also say a third similar threat was then made on Snapchat. The source of that was traced to Timothy Young, Jr., 17.	Fox4News.com http://www.fox4news.com/news/three-garland-isd-students-face-charges-for-alleged-school-threats	Internal

